

COURSE DESCRIPTION / CONTENT

PORTRAIT DRAWING

THAME MUSEUM, THAME, OXON

This class is intended for beginners and experienced artists alike.

Over the 10-week course we discuss the basics of drawing the head including accuracy and observation.

The emphasis is on drawing from life; initially this is achieved from studying the work of great portrait artists past and present and working from photographs as well as experienced portrait models.

Models will feature in five sessions during each ten week term.