

COURSE DESCRIPTION / CONTENT

Beaconsfield
Michael York

WATERCOLOURS

This enjoyable course is aimed at students with some previous experience. Students will be given basic instruction on equipment and on techniques enabling them to produce satisfactory pictures.

Each session worked around a particular subject with a demonstration of the methods required.
Colour picture and written instructions to build up a portfolio for reference.

Tutor recommended course material will be available to buy at the class. Please ask the tutor.